ASC of Washington Awards: Rosettes will be given for first through fourth place in all stockdog trial classes and flats will be given in all conformation and obedience classes. Special awards and/or rosettes will be awarded above class wins. Cash awards will be awarded to: High in Working Trial Aussie, High in Working Trial Other Breed, Gordy Loyer Memorial, Hank Trusler Memorial, Most Promising Started Australian Shepherd, Most Promising Started Other Breed, and Most Versatile Australian Shepherd.

Most Versatile Australian Shepherd: This award is given to the Australian Shepherd who earns the most points in events Saturday, Sunday or Monday by: obtaining 70% of the available points in the conformation evaluation class, attaining a qualifying score in regular obedience, and a qualifying score in a Started, Open or Advanced Stockdog trial class. If no dog qualifies, no award shall be given. The rules are contained in the ASC of Washington ROM rules.

ROM rules: Lori Charron 25113 158th ST E, Buckley, WA 98320 - 360-897-6840

Patti Peterson Memorial High in Trial Obedience: The ASCA registered Australian Shepherd who earns the highest qualifying score from any regular obedience class in the Saturday and Sunday competition will receive this award. This award is given in memory of Patti Peterson, long-time Aussie fancier whose contributions to the club and the breed in the foundation days were respected and appreciated.

Hank Trusler High Combined Started Aussie: The ASCA registered Australian Shepherd who earns the highest combined score from any started classes, qualifying or not, in the Saturday, Sunday and Monday trial classes will earn this award. This award is given in memory of our friend Hank Trusler, a man who graciously opened up the world of stockdog training and trialing to many.

Gordy Loyer Memorial High Combined Stockdog: The dog who earns the highest combined score from all classes and divisions, qualifying or not, in the Saturday, Sunday and Monday Stockdog Trials, will receive this award. The ASC of WA sponsors this award in memory of our friend Gordy Loyer, a true friend of the working dog.

Most Promising Started Australian Shepherd: The ASCA registered Australian Shepherd who receives the highest single score, qualifying or not, in the started division, from the Saturday, Sunday or Monday trials, will receive this award.

Most Promising Started Other Breed: Any breed of dog, other than an ASCA registered Australian Shepherd, who receives the highest single score, qualifying or not, in the started division, from the Saturday, Sunday or Monday trials, will receive this award.

Best Young Stockdog Handler: The junior who receives the single highest score each day, qualifying or not, from the started, open, or advanced division, on any class of stock, in the Saturday, Sunday and Monday trials, will receive this award. If no junior qualifies it may be awarded from the Junior Stockdog Handler division.
